

AGAR AND CANDY MAY NOW RESIGN

City Council Will Appoint the Two New Expert Commissioners.

The appointment of two new commissioners to fill the positions left vacant by the resignation of Commissioners Agar and Candy, and the resignation of Commissioner Candy and Agar are developments in connection with the civic embargo which may be confidently expected in the very near future.

When seen in his office this morning Mayor Armstrong was busily occupied attaching his autograph to a letter to the city clerk, and despite the fact that he had just received a letter from the city clerk, he completed he must write his name down in the city clerk's book.

"Can you say whether it is the intention of the council to appoint two new commissioners to fill the vacant positions on the board?" enquired the reporter.

"I don't know the intention of the council as a body," was the reply.

"Have you any reason to believe that that course has been determined upon internally by the council?"

"I cannot say," was the response.

Mayor in Favor.

To the question whether the appointment of two new commissioners was the course which he would advocate, Mayor Armstrong replied as follows:

"I am not in a position to say," was the answer.

"I cannot say," replied the mayor with a laugh. "I haven't any idea what they intend to do."

Commissioners Candy and Agar, it was remembered, were appointed about two months ago. It was generally conceded at the time that the appointment was not made because the members of the old board were overworked. When asked in open council whether this was the reason of the appointment Mayor Armstrong refused to make any reply.

A deadlock existed in the relations of the council with the commissioners.

It was not until the council could not be accomplished because the necessary majority was not present.

At the meeting of the council, W. S. Candy and D. R. Fraser were then appointed.

Commissioner Candy was then appointed.

Nothing definite.

Commissioner Candy may not resign when the new appointments are made.

We are trying to figure out an excuse for obtaining an injunction to prevent the council from taking action to resign when the new appointments are made.

"I can give a good deal more than $250 a month by attending to my business," was the remark with which he closed the discussion.

Members, including and Hinchman, no longer constitute a majority.

Opposition Obstruction Brigade Wastes First Day of Resumed Session of House of Commons.

Edmonton, July 19.—The game is in progress and both sides have shown their hand. The government has shown the hand of the Opposition. The Opposition has shown the hand of the government.

W. S. Middleton (Conservative, North Grey) rose with an amendment directing Parliament to recognize "in some substantial manner" the services of the former Indian veterans.

Mr. Wilfrid Laurier pointed out that the question was over forty years old and was settled by the Sir John Macdonald government.

With the Premier's brief response, the government's contribution to the discussion was over.

Mr. Middleton occupied time by reading a letter of 1875, and when he finally concluded, the whole session was adjourned.

Mr. Laurier taunted the Premier with absence of liberal speech, and warned him not to expect to get on with other business, but neither Mr. Wilfrid nor his lieutenants would be drawn into the game of obstruction.

The whole afternoon sitting was talked before Mr. W. S. Middleton at night to bring on the reciprocity debate was met by an uprising on the part of W. S. MacLean, who contributed a speech for the public ownership of cable lines.

The third attempt of the finance minister to get on with the business at the school house, however, was not successful.

Mr. Plé, at ten minutes after three in the afternoon was finally carried. James Arthur, of the Opposition, was also carried.

A second attempt by Mr. W. S. Middleton at night to bring on the reciprocity debate was met by an uprising on the part of W. S. MacLean, who contributed a speech for the public ownership of cable lines.

COMMISSIONERS ARE DISMISSED

A. V. Bouillon and Alex. Butehuk no Longer Civic Officials.

After repeated unsuccessful efforts extended over a period of five months the city council last night dismissed Commissioner A. V. Bouillon and Alex. Butehuk from office. The action was carried out in accordance with a pre-arranged plan without discussion. Neither of the two commissioners were present at the council, O. M. Mignar, his assistant, O. M. Mignar, had evidently decided that it would be useless for him to take advantage of the opportunity afforded to address the council on their behalf, and therefore did not appear for this purpose. Aid. McKinnley presided and the following motion: "Resolved that in the opinion of this council the evidence taken and reported by the committee appointed to investigate certain charges against Commissioner Bouillon disprove cause satisfactory to the council to justify his dismissal and that Mr. Bouillon be and is hereby dismissed accordingly." Aid. Lundy, who had the charge against the commissioner, seconded the motion. The motion was carried with the support of the mayor and Ald. McKinnley, Ald. Armstrong and Ald. Miller, eleven ayes, one no, one abstained. The motion and report requested that the two commissioners, Aid. Hyndman and Mould were absent from the city.

A similar motion dismissing Commissioner Butehuk was moved by Mr. McKinnley, who had the charge against him, and seconded by Aid. Lundy, who was carried with the same support given to the previous motion. Aid. McKinnley again presiding.

The resolutions were carried at once, and today the exercise of the executive and administrative functions of city government will be undertaken by Mayor Armstrong, Commissioners Clardy and McKinnley.

It is expected that the resignation of the two commissioners will be accepted by the council to appoint an official to fill the place left vacant.
